Figure S4.

Shape change along PC1 of the dorsal/articulated-valve shell profile. Negative PC1 values correspond to a flatter, less convex shell profile, whereas positive PC1 values correspond to a more inflated, convex shell profile.

