

Fig. S9 Effect of different concentrations of quercetin and caffeic acid on cell viability. Note: viability values are normalized to the AGEs-only control (= 100%); thus the control is represented by the 100% baseline, and each bar denotes a quercetin/caffeic acid mixture in the presences of AGEs. Columns with different letters are significantly different at the same concentration ($p < 0.05$).