

Figure S5. Functional enrichment analyses of the lithophyte-shared orthogroups. Left: GO enrichment results. Right: KEGG enrichment results. The horizontal axis represents the enrichment fold; the size of the bubbles indicates the number of genes in each pathway. The color gradient represents the p-value, transitioning from blue (less significant) to red (more significant).