

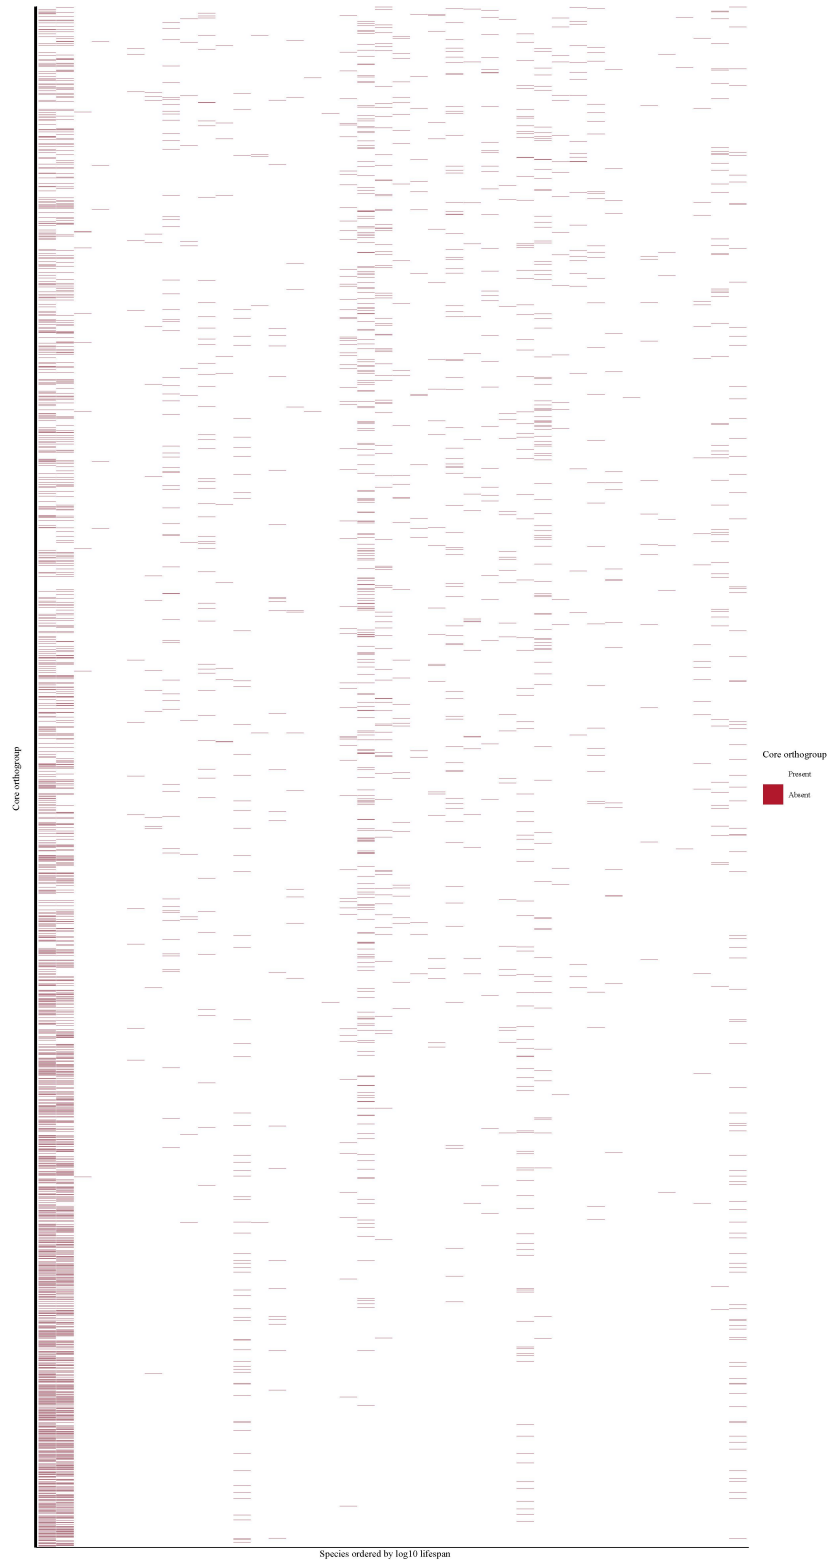

Figure S3. Species-level presence and absence of core orthogroups. Heatmap showing the distribution of core orthogroups across the 40 species. Species are ordered from low to high log10-transformed lifespan along the horizontal axis. Rows represent core orthogroups that are absent from at least one species. White cells indicate that the orthogroup is present, whereas red cells indicate that it is absent.