

Supplemental Fig. S1: The expansion and contraction of gene families. The tangerine numbers are the numbers of expanded gene families, and the light blue numbers are the numbers of contracted gene families. The tangerine and light blue portion of the pie charts represent the proportion of the expanded or contracted gene families during recent differentiation.