

Figure S6. Correlation between manually measured and image-extracted traits. The numbers show the correlation coefficient (r) and the * indicates the significance of the coefficient.