

Supplemental Figure 1. CellphoneDB analyzed of the interactions between gastric cancer epithelial cells and other components in the TME

(A) The heat map showed the results of the CellphoneDB analysis of interactions between gastric cancer epithelial cells and other components in the TME. The colors in the heat map represented the number of receptor-ligand interactions between the two groups, with red indicating a higher number of receptor-ligand interactions and blue indicating a lower number of interactions.