

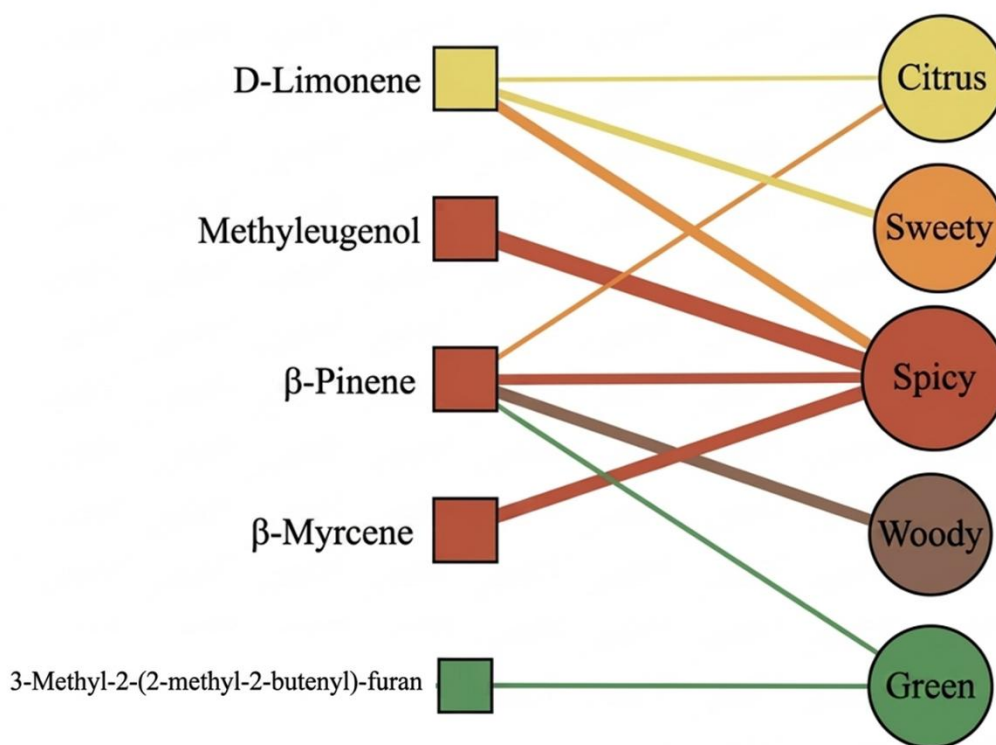

Figure S2. Bipartite association network of five representative OPLS-DA marker compounds and their corresponding scent notes.

Line thickness: Proportional to the log₁₀ value of the average OAV of the compound in all varieties; Node size: The size of the scent node is proportional to the number of compounds belonging to that scent; Compound node size is proportional to its average VIP value.