Figure S3: Co-occurrence networks of rhizosphere bacteria microbiota from different dilutions from samples collected after 1 and 3 weeks of plant growth. Connections indicate significant ($P < 0.01$) correlation calculated by the Pearson method. Nodes represent different OTUs and are colored by the replicates in which the co-occur (A, B, C, and D represent 4 replicates). Grey links represent positive correlations, and pink links represent negative correlations.